Thanks for the heads up on [redacted] STAT
Our personnel folks will get in touch with him and see if we can come up with a match.

Glad to hear the crazies haven't gotten you down. If you think it's bad on the outside, let me tell you it's a lot worse on the inside these days!

Keep your head down.

Sincerely,

Mr. John N. McMahon
DD/CIA
Washington, D.C.

Dear John:

Please excuse me for intruding upon your very busy schedule. I would not ordinarily do so, but I have recently learned that an unusually capable young man of my long acquaintance is interested in Agency employment.

The young man's name is [redacted] and he is a recent graduate of Colorado State University where he studied National Defense Policy under [redacted] I have known [redacted] since 1972, and watched him grow up playing football and singing in the church choir with my own son. As [redacted] matured and attended college I became most favorably impressed with his unusual grasp of foreign affairs in general and of national security matters in particular. [redacted] loyalty, old-fashioned patriotism, and unusual initiative rate as solid assets, and [redacted] I believe I have a good feel for the kind of individual who will make a successful career in CIA. On this basis, I can unreservedly recommend [redacted] for Agency employment.

[redacted]

[redacted] I would be most appreciative if you could put [redacted] is touch with your people in the Office of Personnel.

[redacted]

Thank you for taking time to read this letter, and, as I have mentioned to you before, please don't hesitate to call on me if I can ever be of assistance to the Agency.
